

I am very concerned about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary.

This very clear example of a large corporation abusing its position for partisan electioneering violates everything this country is supposed to be about, and if it is not a violation of the letter of the law, it is surely contrary to the spirit.

In return for the use of the public's airwaves, broadcasters are obliged to serve the public interest. Broadcasting radically partisan political statements, disguised as "news", just days before a crucial election is not in the public interest. As a constituent, I call on the FCC to stop Sinclair from broadcasting "Stolen Honor". Thank you.
